

Students who will attend language courses

REGISTRATION FOR LANGUAGE COURSES IN THE USOS SYSTEM: 21 January 2026 – 8 February 2026

In accordance with the AGH Senate Resolution No. 57/2019 of 24 April 2019, students must enrol in the language course which is a continuation of the language studied for their Matura or other school-leaving examination. We offer courses in English, French, Spanish, German and Russian at CEFR levels: B1, B2, and C1.

We kindly remind you that if you are a student of:

- Faculty of Humanities (Sociology and Cultural Studies)
- Faculty of Geology, Geophysics and Environmental Protection (all Fields)
- New Technologies in Forensic Science (conducted by Faculty of Humanities, Faculty of Computer Science, Electronics and Telecommunications and Faculty of Material Science and Ceramics)

the regulations state that the compulsory language of your course must be English and you can choose only English in your USOS registration.

Students who took their Matura examination in two languages (e.g. French and English) may choose to enrol in either a French or an English language course.

In the USOS system, we have created separate registrations for each language taught at AGH. In your USOS account, you will see as many registrations as the number of languages you took in your Matura exam.

How to enrol in a language course?

In order to register for your language course, you should:
